

Welcome

Instructions for Acupuncture, Thai Bodywork and Zero Balancing:

1. What to wear: For acupuncture, bring shorts or wear loose-fitting clothes. For Thai Bodywork and Zero Balancing, bring or wear loose or stretchy long pants and a comfortable shirt (long or short sleeved).
2. Try to arrive a few minutes early to ensure a relaxed visit. If you arrive late your appointment will be fit into the available time schedule, in order not to inconvenience other clients.
3. Please eat a light meal before your treatment. A lack of food or sleep has on rare occasions been known to result in a brief condition of fatigue, nausea and possibly fainting. Avoid alcoholic beverages for the day and night following treatment.
4. If you have a pacemaker, varicose veins or a bleeding disorder please notify us prior to any treatment.
